Verdi: Early arias

By Andrew Clark

Lucia Aliberti sings 21 top-notch arias from 12 operas

The Verdi bicentenary has been poorly served by record companies. This CD it's the best Verdi disc to come my way this year and deserves its attractive new packaging.

With alert accompaniments conducted by Oleg Caetani, Aliberti sings 21 top-notch arias from 12 operas, many of them lesser-known and all showcasing her majestic coloratura. Despite her soft-focus diction, each is a winner.
